

Who will pay my pension someday...?

TUM International Center invites all international researchers to join us for an information event on

The German Pension Landscape - Information event on pension rights for Internationally Mobile Researchers

When: Tuesday, 16th May 2017 from 4.00 pm to approximately 8.00 pm

Where: Technische Universität München, Arcisstrasse 21, 80333 München, Vorhoelzer Forum (5th floor).

The information session will introduce you to the pension issue in Europe, it will deal with the complex and increasingly important topic of the German statutory pension system (Deutsche Rentenversicherung, DRV) and occupational pension scheme for the public sector, provided by the Versorgungsanstalt des Bundes und der Länder (VBL). In addition, you will be introduced to the information portal FindyourPension.eu. This website portrays the various pension providers within the different European countries and provides concise information for each country.

Our information session aims to answer the following questions:

- Do I qualify for a pension in Germany?
- What pension benefits can I expect?
- Will I still be entitled to collect a pension from Germany once I leave the country?
- If I do not qualify for a pension, how can I have my contributions reimbursed?
- What do I need to do in order to collect my pension on retirement?

Short individual consultations of about 15 to 20 minutes are offered on Thursday, 18th May by the DRV. The representatives of the VBL will answer your individual questions via Email and telephone.

Please register by Tuesday, 2nd May 2017 via e-mail to: bossert@zv.tum.de for the event as well as for the individual appointments, which will be assigned on a first come, first served basis*.

You are very welcome to send us your individual questions or topics of interest that we will transfer to the expert upfront.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the event.

If you register for a consultation, please provide your name, your affiliation/institution (TUM or MPG), your nationality, the duration of your stay and your German social insurance number to allow the experts to prepare for your consultation. Please bring your passport to identify yourself (matter of data privacy) as well.*
